

AMERICAN PHARMACY SERVICES CORPORATION

JULY 27, 2020 | APSC SHAREHOLDERS

CDC Releases Updated COVID-19 Isolation Guidance

The Centers for Disease Control released updated guidance for patients with mild to moderate COVID-19. These individuals can come out of isolation after 10 days and don't need to be retested before going back to work, according to the new CDC guidelines.

Symptoms, not testing, are the guide. If patients had a fever, it needs to have been gone for at least 24 hours.

For more information, click here.

APSC is developing sample Policies and Procedures to address COVID-19 in the pharmacy. If you would like a copy, respond to this email, or give us a call at the number below.

American Pharmacy Services Corporation | www.apscnet.com
P: 800-928-2228 | P: 502-695-8899 | F: 502-695-9912

